

MEEEP!

Bethany Harrington

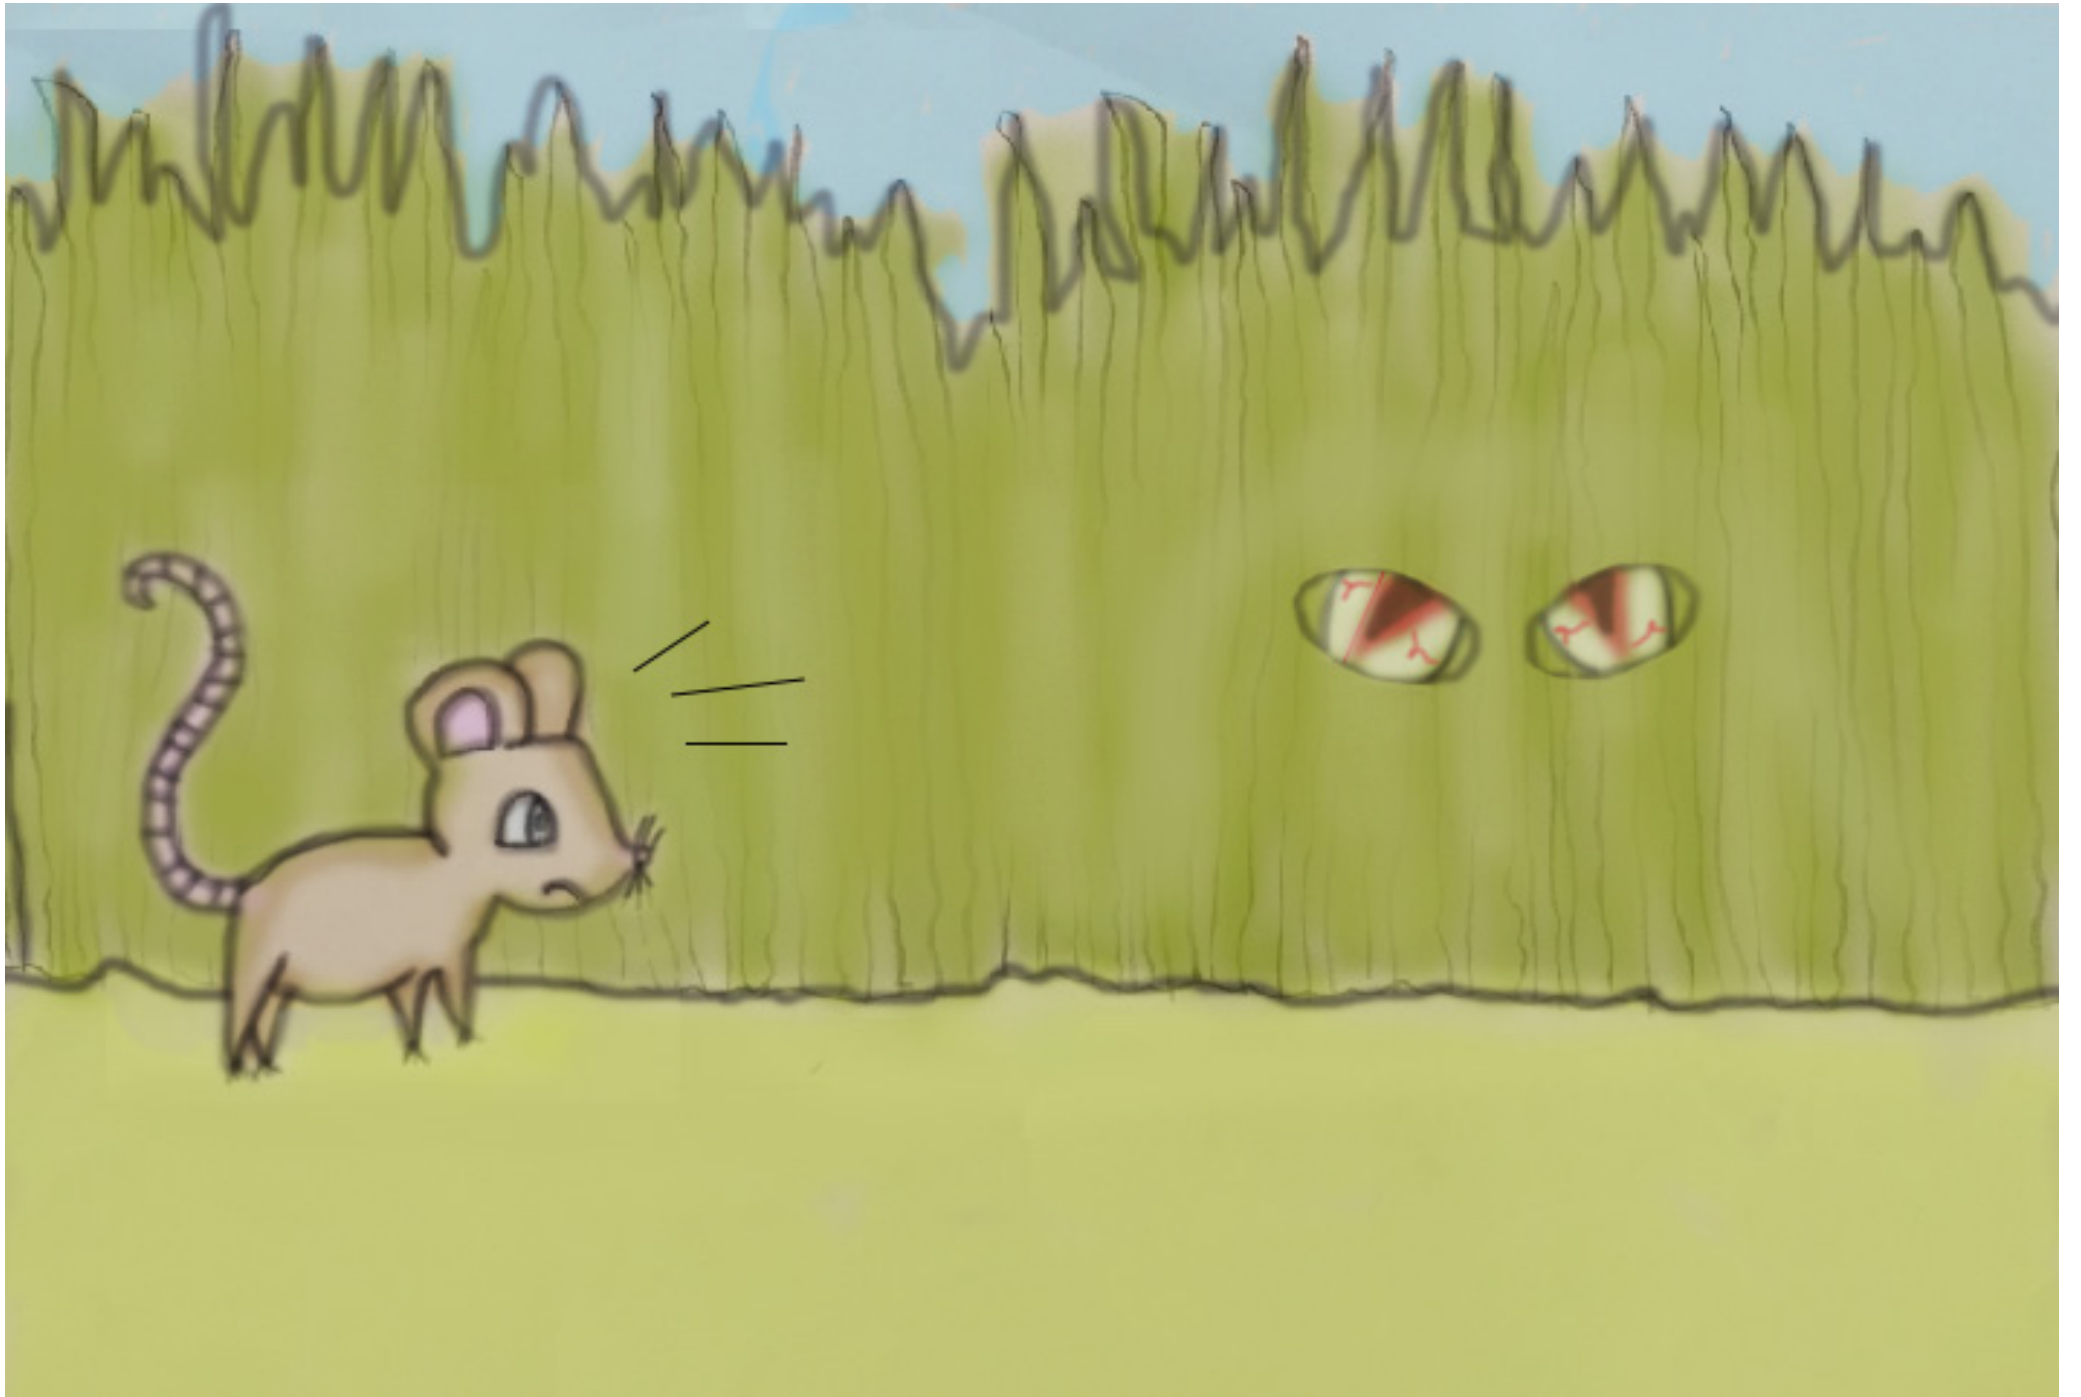

Once upon a time...

There was a mouse
named Meep.

He lived in a tree.

Meep was so afraid of everything that he would hide in his house
all day long.

He was afraid of the grass, because it was so long and thick and he couldn't see through it.

He was afraid of the river because he couldn't swim and it ran so fast. It was also very loud.

Meep is a very lonely mouse.

He lives all by himself in his little hidehole, too scared to go outside. In fact, Meep is too scared to do ANYTHING.

But then he meets Eliza the elephant. And she teaches him just how to be fearless...

 hachette
CHILDREN'S GROUP

ISBN 978-3-14-149410-0

7 783161 484100